The State Ticket.

Last Wednesday the Democracy of Wisconsin assembled in Convention (the largest ever held of any party ever held in the State) at Madison and nominsted the strongest State Ticket ever put forward for the free suffrages of the People. Nearly three hundred delegates were present, and the utmost harmony prevailed. The platform is babably that distinguished military broad enough for every patriot to stand administrator never read that work, War News.

Cincinnati, July 31.—The Commercial's Lexington special says: This morning our forces came upon the considerable fight ensued. The enemy lost 20 killed and wounded, and nearly 100 prisoners.

A rebel force of 500 took Stanford about noon to-day, but were driven out by our cavalry with considerable loss. At last advices they were hastily re-reating toward the Cumberland river. New York, July 31 .- The Express Vicksburg about ten days ago. Notes of preparation for a march to Mobile were then heard. The troops were in good spirits, and confident of success. The calculation was that the stars and stripes would float over Mobile by the 15th of August.

Washington, August 4th.—Direct advices from the front says the army of the Potomac is inactive, and is like ly to remain so for some time to come. The rebel army lies between the Rappahannock and the Rapidan. Lee is at Culpepper. Forloughs of twenty days have been granted by Gen. Meade.

The draft in this city was resumed to-day-no disturbance. Among the persons drafted are eight from the Thronicle, and the pastor of the Catholic Church in the Third Ward.

Morris Island, July 22.---My Medical Director is in the field, and reports an aggregate loss in killed and wounded in our hands of 625. I judge there are 350 missing. The losses cover the three engagements of the 10th, 11th, and 18th, instants. Many of our wounded willcreturn to duty in a week or ten days. The health of the command is im-

New York, August 3.—Advices from Havana, July 25, state everybody is talking about the great fire. Sixteen large stores were entirely destroyed. The fire began on the 22nd inst., and is still burning, although now confined to the ruins. With considerable exertion the milroad depot of the Guanavacoa R. R. was saved, on the preservation of which depended we would recommend him and his Companies to the the fate of lifteen more stores. The confidence of the public fire is supposed to have commenced in some cotton, 672 bales of which were destroyed, belonging to Secessionists and Englishmen. Large quantities of goods intended to be run through the federal blockade, were also consumed. There were also burned large lots of harness, horse shoes, gin, sultpeter, nitre, personssion caps. &c., &c., There were also consumed 63,012 boxes of sugar, valued at $1,231, 216. Total losses estimated $1.118, 163, but On Saturday Eve'g, Aug. 8th, this is decidedly under estimated .--The General Demarina proposed to PERIMENTS IN CHEMISTRY. APPLETON, AUGUST 8. The Arrest of Jas. L. Vallandigham

Letter from the Rev. Gentleman.

From the Philad, Age, July 29, It affords us pleasure to publish the following letter from Rev. James L. Vallandigham, of Neworks Bol. The persecution which this gentleman has been sub-jected to is another ordicare of the partian malice which rules the hour, and we feel assured that it will meet with the reproduction of every citizen who values the psace and good order of society; meet with the regrobation of every citizen who values the peace and good order of society?

To the Editors of the Age: Military arrests have become so common as scarcely to nation to indice will, when a minister of the gaspel is arrested, one explanation egolds seem to to be necessary. Marshall of this state, with a period of his guard, one explanation egolds seem to to be necessary. A certain Dr. McCauley had Among 16,000 claimants. Has now a refused to give his name to the enrolling, officers; he was arrested and held a prisoner by the U. S. Marshal several weeks, and finally brought into court by virtue of a writ of habeas corpus.
The case has has been summarily concluded, by the discharge of Dr. McCanley by a United States Commissioner. This, of course, put an end to the proceedings. It is singular that the Government, and those who argue so confidently the constitutionality of the act in question should be unwilling to let
